SHOWING COMPASSION

In Luke 10:30, Jesus teaches the parable of the Good Samaritan. It is interesting to note that the man half dead made no call for help. In verse 33, it says, "But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he was moved with compassion." Maybe the Christian way is not to wait for someone to cry for help. But, we should lift up our eyes and observe the world around us. Visual comprehension is a strong mover of our hearts to compassion. Out of the abundance of our hearts, the blessings of God will flow.

CARL'S THOUGHTS:

All of us were edified as we assembled for worship this past Lord's Day. Sunday night when the invitation was offered three of our Christians responded requesting the prayers of the congregation on their behalf. Andy Owensby, Alan and Dorothy Bailey all came forward. God is a forgiving God and certainly we are to forgive also if we expect forgiveness. I hope that all of us will encourage these Christians.

This past Thursday, Mattie Creasman, after in-home Bible studies, decided to become a child of God by being baptized into Christ for the remission of her sins. Mattie will probably only be able to come on Sunday mornings because of not being able to drive at night. She lives in Hillsboro. She works at the Senior Center on the Woodbury Highway. Encourage Mattie as she begins her journey with the Lord.

Keep your eye on the cross of Jesus Christ!

RESPONSES

Our hearts were made to rejoice over the responses of three members on Sunday night. Andy Owensby came forward confessing sin of a public nature in his life and wanted the forgiveness of the church.

Alan Bailey came forward confessing the same and he also asked for forgiveness.

Dorothy Bailey came forward asking for the prayers of the church for herself
and her family as they work out their problems.

BAPTISM

Dear Main St. family,

You will never know how much we
