

WHAT ADVICE WOULD YOU GIVE?

When someone has just become a Christian and started out in the Christian life, what advice would you give that person about Bible classes? Would you say, "Now the church has Bible classes every Sunday and Wednesday, but they aren't really important. That the church assembles on Sunday nights but you do not have to go if you do not want to." Or would you say to a son or daughter, "I know that you would like to go today, but I want to read the paper, or I want to sleep late this morning, and I don't think those Bible classes are too important anyway" What advice would you Give?

When we willfully neglect the services (as some are doing) we are telling our children and those around us that the church is not important to us. Our children may even feel the church not important enough to become members of it. Then what could we say for ourselves? Could we say, "Lord, I did my best to teach them the true value of the church—I did this by going and taking them to every service?" —copied

CARL'S THOUGHTS:

Certainly we all are aware of the thought times that people are presently experiencing. I suppose we all are aware of the difficult situation that presently exist in Haiti, It is just hard to imagine what they are confronted with certainly we should be constantly in prayer for them. This Sunday morning in a separate contribution you will have an opportunity to help them in a financial way. We must remember what Paul said in Galatians 6:10: "As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith." We must do good to all men including those in Haiti.

However, we must never forget the plight of those that are in our midst who are hurting. Remember what Jesus said in Acts 20: 35: "I have showed you all things, how that so laboring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, it is more blessed to give than to receive."

Keep your eye on the cross of Jesus Christ!

SECURITY

Not so long ago people were talking about the great prosperity of the United States and its golden future. Today, the same people are not so sure that our nation can even stand.
Things that seemed so permanently secure then are swiftly crumbling now. We are faced with threats to our economy and freedom.
This not only affects us, but our children and their children.

The material civilization which has been the source of endless pride is busily engaged in a process of self-destruction. Fear and insecurity have gripped nearly everyone.
Is there no such thing as security? Is anything sure and steadfast in this world?

There is a "rock of ages" which can protect us from the storms of life. This rock, secure and steadfast, to which we may cling
and be safe, is God's definite promise to bless man under certain conditions. "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee" (Isa. 26:3).

Security belongs exclusively to those who dare to do God's bidding. There are two steps in securing our minds on God They are to engage in diligent study so that we may learn what God wants us to do, and to do
God's will regardless of everything else.
