

NO WORRIES

I've no time to worry about what I've not.
I'm too busy praising Him for what I've got....
Like the sunshine around me; the honey bees;
The shade of an oak tree; an afternoon breeze;
The birds when they're singing; the fish when
they bite;
The rest that's so welcome when day turns to night.

I've no time to worry about what I've not.
I'm too busy praising Him for what I've got...
Like a kiss from my wife when the day is through,
Or a smile, or a touch, or an, "I love you!"
A "Good morning, Daddy!" starts my day off right.

I've no time to worry about what I've not.
I'm too busy praising Him for what I've got...
Like the blood He shed on the old, rugged cross,
Or the peace that comes from counting all things
loss;
For the one who loved me and died on the tree
That I from my many sins might be set free!

CONFESSION vs. HYPOCRISY

After hearing a sermon on confession, a man approached his preacher with a heavy conscience. He explained that he worked for a boat builder and stole expensive brass nails. The man could not tell the boat builder, he said, "Because he would lose his job and his boss would think him a hypocrite and all of the times I shared my faith with him will go to waste." Finally, guilt got so bad he had to confess. He offered restitution. His boss responded: "I did think you were just a hypocrite, but now I begin to feel there's something in this Christianity after all. Any religion that would make a dishonest workman come back and confess that he had been stealing copper nails and offer to settle for them must be worth having.

MONITOR

Due to the rising cost of postage & other requirements, we are offering to send the monitor to you by e-mail,

You can notify us by e-mail at: officemsc@bellsouth.net. You will receive it on Wednesday afternoon. Or you can go to our website mainstreetcoc.org & see it there.

If you would prefer to pick one up on Wednesday night instead of receiving it in the mail, please do so but let us know in the office so we can provide enough Monitors.

Those who want to continue receiving it by mail do not have to do anything, because if we do not hear from you, you will automatically stay on the mailing list.

O MY GOD

"OH MY GOD!" is flippantly and profanely used with no regard for God. But there is a right understanding and attitude in which to use it properly and reverently. Ezra demonstrates, "And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the Lord my God, and said, O MY GOD," and then Ezra "prayed" (Ezra 9:5-6).
